

“Who Are You?” takes participants on a playful, introspective journey through identity, personal stories and defining values. The experience explores moments from one’s world, from meaningful connections and favorite places to passions and quirks that shape individuality. It then shifts toward reflection on success, guiding principles, motivations and future aspirations, ending with a concise personal pitch that ties everything together. A warm mix of humour, emotion and authenticity that brings teams closer through shared stories.

Who Are You?

