

Centered on the idea of creating change together, “The Revolution” invites teams to invent and stand behind their own transformative movement. After choosing a revolution in secret, participants craft resolutions, deliver a bold manifesto speech, design a flag and create an anthem or music video. The experience closes with a creative revolutionary photoshoot and a high-energy party inspired by iconic protest songs. A dynamic and values-driven teambuilding built on teamwork, imagination and shared purpose.

The Revolution